Friday started the third annual Claremont Restaurant Week. You have eight days to take advantage of this community sponsored restaurant event. On this past Wednesday, July 08, 2015, the Claremont Chamber of Commerce together with Discover Claremont hosted a their annual Claremont Restaurant Week Chamber Mixer and Media Preview for the 2015 Claremont Restaurant Week. Ron Antonette of Discover Claremont was the initial greeter and cordial host for guests of the chamber and for the media.

It was a busy event with 14 restaurants and caterers sharing samples of their food. While all of the foods were delicious, not every sample will appeal to everyone because some were really spicy and others were unusual

Restaurants Participating in the Chamber Mixer and Media Preview

Among the 22 restaurants participating in Claremont Restaurant Week 2015, the following 14 served samples of their food for the guests of the chamber and members of the media who turned out for the Chamber Mixer and Media Preview.

The review, "Claremont Restaurant Week Kicked Off with Mixer at DoubleTree," has comments about the different dishes shared with the people at this chamber mixer and preview. Many of them are from the menus that the vendors have created for the 2015 Claremont Restaurant Week.
